The last dream I had was bizarre. My family went on a vacation to the Bahamas. However, we went on a small tiny boat. Yes, we went from New York to the Bahamas. The most bizarre thing happened when a talking whale tries to help us, then we rode on it. Suddenly, the whale went deeper into the ocean. Somehow, we weren't drowning. Then, the whale went back up. Then, he dived down. This happened in over an eternity. Then, the dream ended.
