

Wajih Chowdhury- 11/2/22

Wednesday, November 2, 2022 8:37 AM

- 1) Freewrite
- 2) Autumn: What is a season? Describe how you have changed this season. What are you allowing to shed and fall away?

A season is a period of time of changing. Every season is full of personalities. Specifically, autumn is a season that is full of colors and beauty. In addition, people can change on every season by their goals. I want to shed my introvert self so I can easily talk to new people around the campus.

- 3) What plagues and/or fascinates you?

What plagues and fascinates me are people designing unpleasant stuff that is worth a lot.

- 4) Look up the following words-write their definition and use them in a sentence:

- Acquiesce- unwillingly accept something

I acquiesced the offer to get a free meal

- Aesthetic-appreciation of beauty

The iconic picture of Mona Lisa is aesthetic

- Antithesis- opposition between things

Little did I know, she is the antithesis of nice

- Auspicious- future success is likely

It's very auspicious to pursue a degree

- Brevity- concise use of words

This essay gets an A+ because of its brevity