- 2) Describe your commute today, from the time you woke up, to the moment you walked in the door

My commute was bad. Well, my only achievement is that I woke up as early as possible. I prayed early, but after I prayed, I decided to use my phone for the remaining time. I know, I should've been ready and prepare my breakfast for the remaining time, but I'm in a lazy mood right now. After I left my house, I knew I'm going to be 20 minutes late. My commute takes about an hour to get to the campus.
